

Ghana CRVS Digitisation Business Case

Statistics

- Simplified generation of VS.
- Institutional data sharing.
- Continuous & permanent availability of data.
- Repository of all CRVS data.
- High quality data.
- Reduce survey and census costs.

Human Rights

- Gender statistics facilitate attainment of gender equality.
- Proof of juvenile status enables child protection.
- Legality and security of marriage & divorce processes.
- Legal identity safeguards individual property rights.
- Wellbeing & protection of refugees.
- Prevention of statelessness.
- Single identity source ensures data protection.

National Identity

- Consolidation of civil registration process.
- Increased work flow efficiencies.
- Security & Immigration.
- Increase voter rights.
- Increase efficiency and security in passport application.
- Enable accuracy & validity of national identity.

Administration & Planning

- Data for policy formulation at all levels of governance.
- Service delivery & development planning.
- Health (continuum of care), education, social services delivery linked through ID.
- Infrastructure for health & safety (from CoD).

Sustainable Development Goals

- Increase access to legal identity for citizens.
- Increase monitoring and evaluation of progress.
- Target interventions for vulnerable population.
- Increase availability of data for effective planning.

Shared data (internal)

- Enhance data sharing and coordination among internal government stakeholders.
- Effective intersectoral resource planning and management.
- Facilitate monitoring and performance management.
- Conduct research and analysis.
- Enable institutional target setting and service delivery.
- Enable verification services.

Shared data (external)

- Create source of verifiable data.
- Rich source of data for research and analysis.
- Enable international comparability.
- Engage private sector e.g. insurance companies, financial institutions, pharmaceutical industry.

Ghana CRVS Digitisation Business Case

- Fees & charges for research institutions
- Verification services (embassies, missions, service institutions)
- Various levels of governance rely on CRVS data for planning and will need to invest.
- Service & penalty fees e.g. certified copies for all CRVS events
- Government publications
- Coinvestment and cosharing in infrastructure development (Public private partnerships)
- Data mining services
- Health actors will be interested in CRVS data for planning & service delivery
- Law firms would be interested in marriage and divorce data
- Consumer profiling
- Business concerns may be willing to pay for reliable CRVS data e.g. insurance companies, pharmaceutical companies, mobile network operators.
- Partners, donors